Relive the history as you visit the oldest city in the Philippines and where Magellan landed in 1521. The tour starts with a visit to Casa Gorordo, once the residence of the first Filipino Bishop of Cebu and now a museum. Tour heads on to Fort San Pedro, the old fort that protected the city from marauding pirates. The tour then proceeds to visit Magellan's Cross where a remnant of the original cross planted by the explorer is housed. Also visit the Basilica Minore del Santo Niño where the oldest religious relic in the country, the Santo Niño de Cebu is housed. Continue on to see uptown Cebu and the push homes in the Beverly Hill residential area and where the Taoist Temple offers a panoramic view of the city. Finally, stop at Artevalman, a factory which showcases the best of Cebu's handicrafts.

Puerto Princesa is considered one of the cleanest cities in the Philippines and is approximately an hour and fifteen minutes from Manila by air. The tour starts with a visit to the Crocodile Farming Institute which is a joint project with the Japanese government to preserve the endangered crocodile specie. The next stop is the unique Iwahig Penal Colony which is also known a "prison without walls." The penal colony is unique in that the inmates are not jailed in cells but are encouraged to promote self-sufficiency. After, the tour proceeds to the Rurungan sa Tubod which is a community for women which engages in the weaving of indigenous fibers, pineapple specially, for its industry. Finally, the tour takes visitors to the sprawling Mitra Ranch which has a splendid view of Puerto Princesa as well as Honda Bay.
