

CONSULATE GENERAL OF THE REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES TORONTO

ADVISORY

The Philippine Consulate General in Toronto is pleased to inform the public that the Consulate will open for consular transactions to the public on the first Saturdays of May, July, August, September, October, November and December of 2018 from 9:00 a.m to 12:00 noon.

Please take note of the dates as follows:

May 5, 2018
July 7, 2018
August 4, 2018
September 1, 2018
October 6, 2018
November 3, 2018
December 1, 2018

The Consulate will maintain extended office hours (9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.) every second Fridays of the months of APRIL, MAY AND JUNE.

After this transition period, the extended office hours every second Fridays of the month will be discontinued effective July of 2018.

Aside from processing their consular transactions, i.e. passport renewal and legalization of documents, Filipinos are highly encouraged to take this opportunity to register to qualify as overseas voter for the 2019 Philippine mid-term election process. The registration period will end on 30 September 2018.

The Philippine Overseas Labor Office and the Social Security System will also observe the same working hours on said Fridays and Saturdays.

For information on the requirements for particular consular transactions, please visit the website of the Consulate: <http://www.philcongen-toronto.com>.

Thank you very much for your cooperation with the Philippine Consulate General in Toronto.
